

DAD JOKES BY LUCARELLI "HAPPY BELATED EASTER EVERYONE"

- So, I just found out I'm colorblind. The news came out of the purple!
- Did you know your pupils are the last part to stop working when you die? They dilate.
- What's the difference between a well-dressed man on a unicycle and a poorly-dressed man on a bicycle? It's soda pressing.
- I asked my friend to borrow his ladder. He said he only has a stepladder. I guess he never knew his real ladder.

GOOGLE 5 STAR REVIEW

GOOGLE

"I've worked with Todd and Brian of AOTC for about 5 years now. They are very knowledgeable at all things regarding the environmental services industry. Their company handles customer service very professionally. And they are very quick at deploying services when needed."

Thank you to our amazing customers for your continued support and for leaving us such positive feedback. We're so grateful for your kind words and are thrilled that we're delivering a top-notch experience. We love serving our community and will strive for excellence in everything we do.

AMF ANNUAL CAREER EVENT

It's been a busy year for us at AOTC and we don't have any plans on stopping. Here we have Christos and John were at the AMF's Annual Career and #Networking Event happening at Kennedy Space Center. This event is set up to target students who are on both the academic track and the trade track. Invited attendees will primarily include high school juniors and seniors, and college/university students. Higher education representation will include students from institutions like University of Central Florida, Florida Polytechnic University, FIT, Florida State University, and more..

2023 COCOA BEACH TRIATHLON

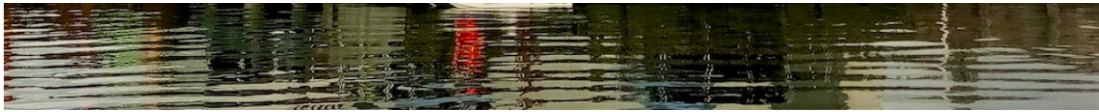

AOTC had 6 entrants in the Cocoa Beach Triathlon. Team Wide Open (James, Noah and Jose) and Team Pencil Pushers (Jacob, Emily and Brian). Team Pencil Pushers for the win!

SPILL TRAINING & RESPONSE

What a great day to conduct our Annual Spill Exercise. The David's got to man the boat. While Noah, Jon, and James were on hand to make sure everything went swimmingly. No pun intended.

ENVIRONMENTAL AND INDUSTRY NEWS

"A lizard with a unique nickname could be harmful to Florida's environment and possibly harmful to people, according to biologists. Some people refer to it as the "Jesus Christ Lizard," because the creature can walk on water. More accurately, it runs atop the water. "
